its of the Quarrel Between the Ex-Bess and John S. Wisc. RICHMOND, April 27.-Gen. Mahone passed brough this city last night on his way to New York, accompanied by his son Butler. It was remored that he had come here to effect a reconciliation with the Hon. John S. Wise, but this proves groundless. There is no prospect of such reconciliation, their partisans say. Thus far Mahone has been beaten, but this is not looked upon as a Wise victory as much as it is a Mahone defeat. The first point is to get Mahone out of the way. When that is done well-informed Republicans say that Wise will not be the leader of the party in Virginia, as he is not in harmony with the element that is fighting Mahone. The disposition seems to be to endeavor to secure harmony by placing some conservative man like Major Tost of Staunton at the head of the State Committee.

Mahone started by calling Wise a cry baby, and Wise rejoined by calling Wise a cry baby, and Wise rejoined by calling Mahone a "kitten." Since then Mahone in his various communications has characterized Wise as a "maisontent," a "deserter." a "a weak, shortighted, unstable and aspiring man and a blower of glittering bubbles. Mr. Wise in reply said that he is satisfied that it has been proved of Mahone "that no man can differ with him and be his friend," and that it is his "cold, malicious purposes to put away from him every man who will not yield unquestioning adhesion to his viewa." He then defles Mahone "to drive him from the party, ashe has done so many others." Wise's lastcard says that he "saw that Senstor (Mahone) appropriate the whole Federal patronago to himself, snubbing his six colleagues, and even objecting to their nomination of a petty Postmaster in their own districts without his sanction and approval, and that yeary officer in the department from the pettings clerkahip upward was hoarded to himself as jealously as a miser hoards his gold."

It is considered that no matter what turn fairs may take Mahone will appeal to the National Convention. conciliation with the Hon, John S. Wise, but "I have prescribed Ayer's Sarsaparilla for all of those who are suffering from scrofulous humors. I was afflicted for years, and tried every available remedy, with no effect. A BRIGHT CHICAGO POLICEMAN. He Runs In a Man who Stoir a Base and had a "Charley Horse,"

CHICAGO, April 27 .- Policeman Breunelsen of the Larrabee street station was twirling his club near a ball game on the prairie late yesterday afternoon, when he heard one of the players talking about stealing a base. He approached the young men for the purpose of players taking about steaming a base. The proached the young men for the purpose of securing further evidence. As he neared the umpire he heard Second Baseman John Withom declare that he had a "Charley horse," which is base ball lingo for a lameness in the leg that prevents running. The policeman at once pounced upon young Withom and took him to the Larrabee street station. In Judge Kersten's court to-day Breuneisen marched his prisoner to the bar and said:

"This man, your Honor, is a horse thiel. I heard him say so himself."

"What did he say?" asked the Justice.

"Why, he said that he had a 'Charley horse,' that it was his first one, and that he would like to dispose of it. I know this fellow never owned a horse since I have been travelling a best, and he must have stolen it."

The Judge pearly fell out of his char, and the spectators burst into loud laughter. When peace had been rostored the Judge discharged the prisoner and administered a severe rebuke to the officer. Breuneisen never saw a ball game, and had been but two years in this country.

When six months old the left hand of our little grand-child began to swell and had every appearance of a large boil. We positized it, but all to no purpose. About five months after it became a running sore. Soon obter sores formed. He then had two of them on each hand, and as his blood became more and more impure it took less time for them to break out. A sore came on the chin, beneath the under lip, which was very oftentive. His head was one solid scat, discharging a great deal. This was his condition at twenty-two months old, when I undertook the care of him, his mother having died when he was a little more than a year old, of consumption (scrotula, of course). He could walk a little, but could not get up if he leil down, and could not move when in bad, having no use of his hands. I immediately commenced with the CUTICURA REMEDIES, using the CUTICURA and CUTICURA stoat Preely, and when he CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP freely, and when he had taken one bottle of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT his had taken one bottle of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT his head was completely cured, and he was improved in every way. We were very much encouraged, and continued the use of the Remedies for a year and a half. One sore after another healed, a bony matter forming in each one of these dive deep ones just borers healing, which would finally grow loose and were taken out then they would heal rapidly. One of these ugly bone formations I preserved. After taking a dosen and a half bottles he was completely cured, and is now, at the age of six years, a strong and healthy child. The scars on his hands must always remain. His hands are strong, though we once feared be would never be able to use them. All that physicians did for him did him no good. All who saw the child before using the CUTICURA REMEDIES and see the child now consider is a CURA REMEDIES and see the child now consider it a wonderful cure.
